

q plant
Enterprise

Plant optimisation. At any time, from everywhere.

Optimum order management | Production optimisation | Plant analysis

Enterprise

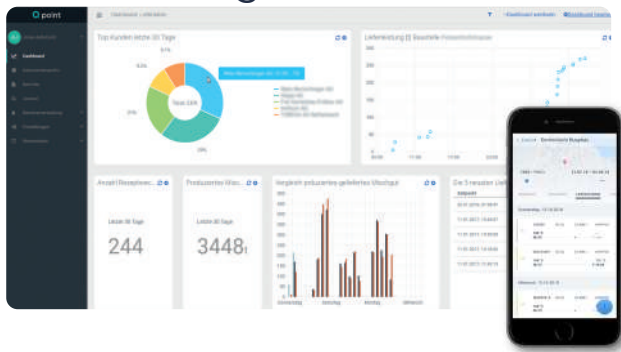

With Q Plant, operators can process and control all relevant information regarding orders, production, dispatching and logistics by using of a user-friendly platform online and from anywhere.

Advantages

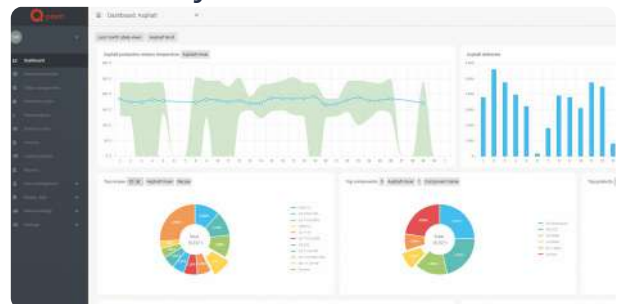

- Minimal number of recipe changes
- Latest possible production start at the beginning of the day
- Complete demand planning through recipes
- Cycle times and expected arrival times of trucks
- Loading monitor and electronic delivery notes

- Real-time information about supply performance and reliability
- Documentation of energy consumption and capacity monitoring for multiple mixing plants
- Evaluation of batch records
- Calendar function for all tasks
- Production planning and monitoring

Order management

Plant analysis

Q Plant

- is the solution to numerous challenges.
- enables the smooth and profitable operation of a mixing plant and masters delivery as well as distribution problems, difficulties and remaining quantity problems.
- is a cross-platform cloud-based software service with highest security standards and availability.
- enables operating cost savings of up to 30% in energy consumption and production cycle times of mixing plants.